

David A. Reynolds, 51, of Columbus City, died Monday, November 17, 2008 at his residence in Columbus City, Iowa.

Funeral services will be Friday, November 21, 2008 at 10:30am at the Stacy-Lewis Home for Funeral and Cremation Services in Columbus Junction. Rev. Al Coffin will officiate. Casket bearers will be Wayne Finke, Cory Finke, Nathan Wheeler, Travis Finke, Mike Pugh, Daryl Carrier, Dennis Fritz and Bob Watson. Visitation will be held on Thursday, November 20th from 4:00-7:00pm at the Stacy-Lewis Home for Funeral and Cremation Services. A memorial has been established at the funeral home in David's name. Burial will be in the Columbus City Cemetery. Sympathy notes may be left to the Reynolds family at www.lewisfuneralhomes.com.

David Allen Reynolds was born September 25, 1957 in Muscatine, Iowa, the son of Cecil R. and Donna Joyce (Brady) Reynolds. He married Elizabeth McBride, and they later divorced. David was a maintenance worker at the Riverside Casino. He also had worked on oil rigs in Wyoming and at the Columbus Lumber Yard and with Rueckert and Sons. David enjoyed Coffee Club in the mornings, working on race cars, going to the races and bowling for many years.

David will be dearly missed by his daughter, Sandra Reynolds of Columbus Junction; his girlfriend, Sally Wheeler of Columbus City; his mother, Donna Joyce McAuly of Fredonia; his sisters, Barbara Plum and her husband, Bum or Wisconsin, Debbie Van Auken of Muscatine, Lisa Reynolds of Columbus Junction, Theresa Fulton and her husband, Todd of Columbus Junction and Diane Holmes and her husband, Mike of Muscatine; his brother, Donnie Reynolds of Muscatine; and his twin brother, Ronnie Reynolds of Glenwood, Iowa.

David was preceded in death by his father.